Preparing for Life's Financial Journey

Imagine getting into your car to go on vacation without any idea of where you wanted to go or what route you would take to get there. You might eventually end up somewhere, but would it be where you truly wanted to go and would you have enough time to do what you wanted to do?

Now consider one of life's most important journeys — the road to your financial future. Too often, people set off without a clear strategy or direction. They may depend on tips from friends, listen to headlines in the media and CNBC, or worse, they may put off thinking about important decisions until it is too late or costly to change course.

In today's world, more is required. The truth is, most people can no longer depend on their pensions or employer sponsored retirement plans to get them where they want to go. At the same time, they face a dizzying array of savings and investment alternatives. Navigating these choices — as well as the constantly changing landscape of market conditions, inflation, tax laws and regulations — has made the investment landscape more complex than ever.

Helping You Pursue Your Goals

Stone Hill Financial can help you effectively plan for the guarantees in life (see box at left). We offer a broad spectrum of services, from financial, retirement, and estate conservation to tax planning and insurance analysis, to help set you on the road to financial success.

We do not believe there is a one-size-fits-all financial strategy that can meet the needs of every individual. Instead, we focus on helping you reach your unique goals, whether they include a financially secure retirement, the purchase of a vacation home, the education of your children, planned charitable giving, or ensuring a smooth transfer of your estate to your heirs.

There are four guarantees in life:

1. Life changes
2. Tax laws change
3. We will pay taxes
4. We are not immortal

We work closely with you to understand your concerns and objectives. Then we map out an appropriate strategy that matches your own unique priorities and tolerance for risk. We also can advise you on alternatives as you face important crossroads or unanticipated detours. Most of all, we can serve as a compass, providing disciplined, objective advice to help keep you on track to meet your goals.

A Disciplined Investment Process*

Stone Hill Financial can help you develop a personalized program tailored to your individual situation. We work closely with you to understand your specific financial goals, risk tolerance, time horizon and investment preferences. Based on that understanding, we help you:

- Develop an integrated, personalized investment program based on your financial goals.
- Diversify your assets to help enhance return and manage risk.
- Manage the impact of taxes and inflation on your investments.
- Monitor the performance of your investments.
- Regularly rebalance your investments to maintain your desired asset allocation.
- Develop a cost effective, tax efficient plan to transfer your assets upon death.

We then help you invest your assets in a way that is consistent with your overall asset allocation strategy, comfort level and required returns. In selecting investment products and managers, we focus not only on past performance (past performance is no guarantee of future returns) but also on the investment firm's philosophy, integrity, customer focus and adherence to the proscribed asset allocation strategy. We will then continue to carefully monitor your investment performance and asset allocation over time, making certain your portfolio remains compatible with your goals and risk tolerance.

*Asset allocation and rebalancing are strategies designed to help manage investment risk and do not guarantee a profit or protect against investment loss in declining markets.

Knowing that your assets are well diversified* and invested in accordance with your goals and risk tolerance, can give you confidence during periods of inevitable market volatility. It can also help you resist the temptation to try to time the market or sit out during periods of market turbulence, which can hinder your ability to capitalize on potential upswings.

* There is no assurance that a diversified portfolio will achieve a better return than a non-diversified portfolio.

Tax-Wise Strategies for Year-Round Planning

With our increasing government deficits, the aging population and longer life spans, it's likely that tax rates will continue to rise. It makes sense to plan ahead and plan wisely.

Stone Hill takes a holistic view when it comes to tax-wise strategies. We can work with you to help you implement tax-wise strategies to reduce your annual tax liability and keep more of what you earn.

Preparing for the Unexpected

Unfortunately, we cannot anticipate every turn life's journey might take. While no one likes to think about the possibility of long-term illness, disability or death, it is a vital part of ensuring long-term financial security.

Risk management involves an analysis of risks and weaknesses that threaten your financial plan, whether from inadequate liability coverage or insufficient life insurance. We help you identify those factors and determine strategies that will help to protect your financial stability. We can help you analyze how much coverage you need and review the current policies you already have in place.

As part of our on-going consultation with you, we can provide insurance plans to ensure that you and your loved ones are cared for and your legacy ensured. We can help you review a variety of options, including life insurance, long-term care and disability insurance to decide what might best serve your overall situation.

Planning Your Legacy

The goal of estate planning is simple: to increase the probability that the results of your family's hard work will transfer to whom you want it to, when you want it to, in the most cost effective, tax efficient way.

To achieve this goal, we work with you to:

- Ensure the effectiveness of your estate plan by coordinating beneficiary designations and asset titling.
- Maximize the proceeds of your life insurance policies by having their ownership and beneficiary provisions properly structured.
- Maintain sufficient estate liquidity to avoid having a forced sale of business, real estate or investment interests.
- Minimize federal and state estate taxes as appropriate.
- Decrease the costs of probate, particularly if you own property in different states.
- Diminish the burden on relatives by providing protective management provisions for assets that are left to children and grandchildren.
- Reduce the burden on your minor children by having a written plan for their care if your spouse and you were both to pass away.
- Enhance the value your heirs receive by taking full advantage of options to transfer assets out of your taxable estate.

At Stone Hill Financial, we can help you determine the best plan of action for you and your family. We assist you by setting up the appropriate arrangements and estate planning tools you need to ensure your intentions are fully followed.

We're also a Strategic Partner for Your Business

As a business owner, you face many challenges to achieving success. That's why, it helps to have a financial partner who understands your needs and cares deeply about your success.

Because we are also a small business, we understand the challenges that business owners face in both good times and bad. We recognize the importance of growing your business and being innovative to stay one step ahead of your competition and market conditions. Often, a business owner's primary investment is his or her business. We incorporate this understanding and philosophy into our overall approach.

We can help you design an affordable and easy-to-maintain benefits package that's appropriate for your business. From plan implementation to funding, we can help you evaluate your needs and choose the most suitable retirement program for you and your business.

Our business services include:

- 401(k) plans
- Pension and profit sharing plans
- Deferred compensation plans
- Group health insurance plans (including consumer empowered health plans)
- Selective executive benefits
- Exit strategies and succession planning
- Key person insurance

The Value of Independent, Objective Advice

Stone Hill Financial provides you with an objective resource that can provide advice based solely on your needs and goals. We are able to provide guidance that is truly objective, aiming to eliminate any potential conflicts of interests.

We have no proprietary investment products to recommend and no vested interest in promoting a particular product or service. Our only interest is that your investment program meets your financial objectives.

Preparing Your Financial Program From All Angles

Nothing can replace a personal relationship with a trusted advisor who truly understands your goals and objectives. As your financial advisor, we take the time to get to know you, your core values and your personal financial goals. We focus on fewer relationships than many other financial service firms, so that we can devote more time and resources to developing a close rapport with you. The service that we provide will reflect what's most important to you, pinpointing your financial objectives and identifying specific strategies for turning your dreams into realities.

We would be happy to meet with you to discuss your investment needs and objectives. Contact us to learn more about how we can help you simplify your financial life through comprehensive and personalized financial strategies.
